

AN EVER-CHANGING SCENE

Perhaps one reason for my love of photography is a desire to hold and savour certain moments for longer than their brief activity allows. Just try to record the life of a growing child and one recognizes immediately how 'on the move' we humans are.

In this process of helping the people of Trinity through this transition time, I've made numerous attempts to PLAN something, i.e. to fix in time dates and specifics around particular events. Whether we're talking about worship services, meetings, small group gatherings or one-time events, that has all been further complicated by the ever changing regulations and need to limit the spread of the Corona virus. So I preface this message with the caveat that I'm doing the best I can with what I know now AND things could change.

Having said that, you'll find on page 2 of this message a chart of my thoughts and plans for the next five months. A few things, such as the date of Easter, will not shift, but our way of celebrating that most important day of the Christian year might require adjustments (as it did in the past two years).

This chart (see p.2) is going to the next Trinity Council meeting on February 16 for discussion and approval. Only when we have specific dates for certain activities can final planning for them proceed. So I send this chart to you now, asking that you look it over and communicate with me and/or with Council members your thoughts and feelings about what is being suggested in this draft. It has been created with reference to the church year, to the brainstorming about celebrations, which the congregation did in November, and to conversations and Emails with many of you.

Is it a perfect document? Of course not. Is it fixed for all time? Of course not; Council hasn't even discussed it yet. However, in order to proceed with Disbanding Gracefully, it's important for some of these things to happen and, if we want them to, they need to be organized now.

I ask you to let me know:

1. Your reaction to the proposed suggestions.
2. Which activities you would like to help organize, lead or assist with.
3. Which activities you plan to attend.
4. What friends and family members you intend to invite.
5. What favorite hymns you hope we'll sing in these 5 months.
6. Anything else you want to communicate.

My thoughts and prayers continue to be with each one of you, as together we make our way through this year like none other, relying on one another and trusting in the unending, unconditional love of the Holy One. Joanna
